The theme of EMO 2024 is "Emotion and the Future." The conference will explore the latest research on the nature and function of emotion, and how emotion shapes our interactions with the world around us. EMO 2024 will feature a keynote address by Dr. Lisa Feldman Barrett, author of the book

"How Emotions Are Made." Dr. Barrett will discuss her groundbreaking research on the construction of emotion, and how our emotions are shaped by our experiences and our culture.

In addition to the keynote address, EMO 2024 will feature a variety of other presentations, including:

- Symposia on cutting-edge research topics
- Workshops on methodological and analytical techniques
- Poster sessions showcasing the latest research findings
- Networking opportunities for researchers from around the world

EMO 2024 is an important event for researchers in the field of emotion. The conference provides a unique opportunity to learn about the latest research findings, network with colleagues from around the world, and contribute to the growing body of knowledge on emotion.
