Persecuted: The Global Assault on Christians is a groundbreaking book that exposes this hidden story, providing a comprehensive overview of the persecution of Christians around the world. Written by award-winning journalist Paul Marshall, the book draws on extensive research and firsthand accounts to paint a vivid picture of the challenges faced by Christians in many countries.

A Call to Action

Persecuted is not just a book about the problem of Christian persecution; it is also a call to action. Marshall argues that the global community has a moral obligation to stand up for the rights of Christians and to protect them from persecution. He provides a number of practical steps that can be taken to help persecuted Christians, including:

- * Advocating for religious freedom in international forums
- * Providing financial and humanitarian assistance to persecuted Christians
- * Raising

awareness of the issue of Christian persecution * Praying for persecuted Christians
