The book is divided into three parts. The first part provides a general overview of Hollywood's history, from its beginnings in the early 20th century to its dominance of the global film industry today. The second part offers a critical survey of some of the most important films and filmmakers in Hollywood history, including Charlie Chaplin, Alfred Hitchcock, and Steven Spielberg.

The third part of the book is a complete filmography of every Hollywood release since 1918. This filmography includes information on the film's title, release date, director, cast, and box office gross. It also includes links to the film's IMDb page and Wikipedia article.

This book is an essential resource for anyone interested in Hollywood history. It is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the films and filmmakers that have shaped the world of cinema.
