

Unraveling the Enigmatic Karna: A Journey through "The Conflict of Karna"

In the rich tapestry of Indian mythology, the tale of Karna stands as a poignant and enigmatic enigma, a hero torn between duty and desire, righteousness and revenge. Pradeep V.M.'s captivating novel, "The Conflict of Karna," delves into the labyrinthine depths of Karna's psyche, weaving a compelling narrative that explores the complexities of human nature.

Karna: A Symbol of Duty and Sacrifice

Karna, the eldest son of Kunti, was abandoned at birth due to a prophecy foretelling his destiny as a powerful warrior. Despite his humble beginnings, Karna's unwavering loyalty and determination to prove his worth became a testament to his indomitable spirit. The novel delves into Karna's struggles to reconcile his desire for recognition with his obligations to his foster family and the Pandavas, his half-brothers.
