

Us Army Long Range Patrol Scout In Vietnam 1965 71 Warrior 132: A Gripping Tale of Courage and Survival

In 1965, at the height of the Vietnam War, a young man named John Stryker volunteered for the Long Range Patrol (LRP) program. The LRP was a highly specialized unit that conducted long-range reconnaissance missions deep into enemy territory. Stryker and his fellow LRP scouts were some of the most elite soldiers in the US Army, and they faced some of the most dangerous challenges of the war.
